NEWSLETTER #2

Youth work sheds LIGHT to unconscious bias and invisible racism

Welcome to the second edition of the LIGHT Project newsletter! As we continue our work on addressing unconscious bias and invisible racism, we are excited to share our latest developments and upcoming activities.

Read on to discover how we are equipping youth workers and young people with essential tools for inclusivity.

The LIGHT project is led by a diverse group of partners from across Europe: LICRA (France), KMOP (Greece), CSC "DANILO DOLCI" (Italy), Radio La Benevolencija (Netherlands), and CWEP (Poland), each contributing unique expertise to promote inclusivity and tackle unconscious bias and racism.

● Self-Revealing Tests: Refinements Underway

Our Self-Revealing Tests are in the final stages of refinement and will soon be available in English, French, Polish, Dutch, Italian, and Greek.

These interactive tests are designed to help individuals assess and reflect on their biases, fostering personal growth and awareness. Stay tuned for their official release!

The MOOC

We are finalizing a self-paced MOOC (Massive Open Online Course) for youth workers. The course will include five modules covering key topics:

- Understanding unconscious bias and invisible racism
- Introduction to non-formal learning methodologies
- Theatre of the oppressed for youth work
- Storytelling as a tool for addressing bias
- Practical application of the LIGHT tools

This MOOC will provide youth workers with practical insights and strategies to address unconscious bias and racism effectively.

Stay connected and join us in our mission to create a more inclusive world!

• Next steps

Looking ahead, we are excited about the next steps for the LIGHT project:

- Launch of the Capacity-Building Cycles: A two-month structured training program for youth workers, including self-paced MOOC attendance and follow-up evaluation.
- Implementation of Hybrid Youth Activities: Engaging young people in non-formal learning sessions across partner countries to raise awareness on unconscious bias and racism.
